Principal’s News

Tuesday, 7 June 2011

Last week saw the arrival of our new school marquee. It is 6m x 3m and has the school logo and name on the front of it. It can be used for any of our sports or school activities and we are very grateful to our P & C who raised the funds to purchase it.

Good luck today to our PSSA basketball teams (boys and girls) who travel to Bomaderry to play in the next round of the knockout. Many thanks to our parents who have helped out with transport.

Good luck also to our Yr 6 debating teams who will compete against Vincentia PS and Sussex Inlet PS tomorrow (Wednesday). The first debate starts at approx 11:00am in our Connected Classroom. Parents are welcome to come along and watch.

Next week Peter Cameron will be relieving in my position for a few weeks while I join my son in Canada. Please do not hesitate to contact Peter if you have any concerns or questions.

Thought for the Week

Children are born with wings
Teachers help them fly.

Thanks to Mr Rutter who provided this week's quote.

Walkathon 1st Prize Draw

Bronwyn McGauley was the very lucky winner of an iPad 2. The iPad was the first prize in the P & C’s walkathon fundraiser. We are sure Bronwyn will love checking out all the wonderful apps.

Congratulations and enjoy your new iPad.

P & C News

A big thank you for all the walkathon fundraising, $4648.18 to date, and a reminder to finish collecting fundraising money if you haven’t already done so. This money will go towards new technology for the school, eg iPads. Congratulations to the three students who won our prizes – well done and I hope you get lots of fun out of them.

A reminder also to get your voluntary contributions into the office. These funds are used for equipment for our kids.

Also if you haven’t already, please register your email address to receive your SCOOP automatically, follow the directions on the school website.

And a heads up, there will be a Saturday morning working bee in Term 3, a date will be finalised soon.

National Simultaneous Storytime

On Wednesday 25 May 2011, students and teachers from Broulee Public School joined organisations from Broome to Hobart, reading the picture book Feathers for Phoebe to more than 150,000 children across Australia.

The event has been organised by the Australian Library and Information Association, to promote the value of reading and literacy, the importance of Australia's book industry and the role of libraries.

Feathers for Phoebe is written and beautifully illustrated by Rod Clement and published by HarperCollins Publishers Australia. It is a story about self-esteem, self-acceptance and learning that appearances aren't everything.

K/1D News

One of our Guided Reading Groups this week practised and performed the play 'The Three Billy Goats Gruff' for our Kindergarten and Year 1 assembly in the hall. They rehearsed all by themselves and made the mask for the troll. They all did a fantastic job.
